Learn from travel adventures and fun social experiences!

Intergenerational Community
Improve your communication skills and equip yourself to work in multicultural teams. Support a community project, or participate in a global network with our Minor and Certificate in Intergenerational Community. And, learn as well as Certificates in Intergenerational Communication for Italian, German, and Spanish.

Major in Theatre Studies
Are you interested in a program that will provide insight into the practice and reception of theatre studies? Consider a Major or Minor in Theatre Studies. Courses will include topics in academic research, performance archives, and theatre studies. The program will involve hands-on learning and a celebration of Theatre, with students traveling abroad to see live performances and theatrical spaces and to experience cultures of reception.

For more information visit: westernu.ca/arts/theatre

Minors in Digital Humanities

The Minor in Digital Humanities is an interdisciplinary program designed for students to become conversant in the field of digital humanities and to develop skills that are essential for a contemporary digital world. In this program, students will learn to use digital technologies to analyze and visualize data. They will also develop critical thinking skills and be able to apply these skills in a variety of fields, including the arts, humanities, and social sciences.

For more information visit: westernu.ca/arts/digitalhumanities

Honors Specialization in Creative Writing and English Language & Literature

This exciting program combines the scholarship and practice of Western’s internationally ranked English language and literature program with the creative potential of a wide variety of writing courses. Students can pursue a program of study and practice in a variety of genres, integrating key disciplines and literary studies. Courses are taught by professional writers in creative writing, who are committed to the development of their students. The program offers unique opportunities to explore the arts in a variety of contexts, and students can choose from a wide range of electives.

For more information visit: westernu.ca/arts/honors

Go Global

Arts & Humanities offers study abroad, exchanges, co-operative, and experiential learning courses in unique destination worldwide. Study internationally with more than 500 study abroad courses in 30 countries, not only will Arts & Humanities students receive a more adventurous and diverse learning experience, but also they will be able to travel to different parts of the world, immerse yourself in the rich mosaic of cultures and individuals that will be your schoolmates. The opportunities are endless!

Grocery

The Minor in Digital Humanities is an interdisciplinary program designed for students to become conversant in the field of digital humanities and to develop skills that are essential for a contemporary digital world. In this program, students will learn to use digital technologies to analyze and visualize data. They will also develop critical thinking skills and be able to apply these skills in a variety of fields, including the arts, humanities, and social sciences.

For more information visit: westernu.ca/arts/digitalhumanities

Student Clubs

The Arts & Humanities Students’ Council provides great opportunities to get involved in community outreach, art shows, drama productions, student publications (both academic and creative), and more. The opportunities are endless!
The School for Advanced Studies in the Arts & Humanities (SASAH)

This immersive and interdisciplinary program accepts 25 undergraduate students each year.

SASAH IS UNIQUE IN CANADA. This advanced liberal arts program draws inspiration from the historical arts and humanities traditions, including ancient cultures and modern developments, and explores the intellectual and cultural world that we share.

SASAH is based at Western University in London, Ontario, Canada. The School is a three-year program that provides students with a thorough grounding in the arts and humanities, and prepares them for graduate studies, law school, or careers in a variety of fields.

The School has received funding from the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC) and the Canadian Association of University and College Libraries (CAUL). The School is also supported by the Ontario Trillium Foundation and the Canada Council for the Arts.

The School is committed to diversity and inclusivity, and encourages applications from students who have demonstrated exceptional academic achievement and leadership potential.

For more information, please visit the School's website at western.ca/sasah.