The School for Advanced Studies in the Arts & Humanities (SASAH)

This immersive and interdisciplinary program accepts 25 undergraduate students each year.

SASAH is Canada’s largest and most diverse interdisciplinary arts program. This program delivers a transformative education that includes interdisciplinary concentrations based on students’ interests, opportunities for engagement with the digital world, and international travel as a core component. Its goal is to prepare students for graduate study in the arts, humanities, and arts-related fields through direct experience with the arts, and in collaboration with artists, scholars, and cultural practitioners.

Applications are due in February. Check website for details: westernu.ca/arts/sasah

Programs

Classical Studies

Classical Studies addresses questions of who we are today by exploring the foundational cultures of ancient Greece and Rome.
